From a reading of the reliefs which are claimed in the writ petition, it becomes manifest that the only grievance which had constrained the writ petitioner to approach this Court was a failure on the part of the respondents to allow its application for voluntary cancellation of its Goods and Services Tax registration.

Learned counsel representing the respondents on instructions states that the said application has been duly processed and an order of cancellation passed on 17 May 2024.

In view of the aforesaid, the writ petition is clearly rendered infructuous. It is accordingly disposed of as such.
