1. By way of present petition, the petitioners seek quashing of FIR bearing no. 1827/2006, registered at Police Station Sultanpuri, Delhi, for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 420/406/506/120B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereafter 'IPC').
2. Issue notice. The learned APP accepts notice on behalf of the State.
3. The petitioners and respondent nos. 2 and 3 are present before this Court. They have been identified by their counsels and concerned Investigating Officer (IO) from Police Station Sultanpuri, Delhi.
4. Briefly stated, facts of the present case are that on the complaint of respondent nos. 2 and 3, the present FIR was registered against the petitioners under the relevant sections. It is stated that both the parties have amicably settled the present matter vide Compromise Deed dated 04.02.2025, entered between them.

5. On a query made by this Court, respondent nos.2 and 3, who have been identified by the concerned IO, have categorically stated that they have entered into compromise out of their own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent nos. 2 and 3 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties. Respondent nos. 2 and 3 further state that they have no objection, if the present FIR is quashed.

6. In view of the above fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, without any coercion, no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings; rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

7. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 1827/2006, registered at Police Station Sultanpuri, Delhi, for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 420/406/506/120B of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed, subject to the petitioners depositing cost of Rs.10,000/- each, with the Advocates Welfare Fund, Rohini Courts, Delhi, within seven days from date and a copy of the receipts be also filed with the Registry to show compliance of the order.
