returned under office objection on the ground that there was no order to file the same. Therefore, on the request of the learned APP for State, the copy of amended Memo of Parties has been handed over to this Court.

6. Brief facts of the case are that on 02.11.2022, petitioner along with his younger brother Vansh who were residing in front of the house of respondent no. 2, had committed molestation with respondent no. 2 and her mother when they were alone at their home, by way of breaking door of her house and tried to torn her clothes by way of dragging till the door of the house and had also beaten them. It is alleged that the petitioner and his younder brother Vansh had tried to commit rape with respondent no. 2 and their family members had also beaten the family members of respondent no. 2, due to which complainant's mother had sustained serious injuries. Thereafter, on the complaint of respondent no. 2, the present FIR was registered.

7. It is stated that with the intervention of the respectable persons of the society and as the petitioner and respondent no. 2 are neighbours, both the parties have resolved & settled their all disputes with each other vide Settlement Deed dated 09.05.2025.

8. Considering the same, the parties are present in person before this Court and have been identified by their counsels and Investigating Officer concerned.

9. The complainant who is present in person before this Court, states that she has no objection, if the present FIR is quashed.

10. In view of the above facts that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will and without any coercion, I am of the opinion that no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. Hence, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. Moreover, there is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

11. Accordingly, FIR bearing no. 0889/2022, registered at Police Station Sultanpuri, Delhi, for the commission of offences punishable under Sections 354/452/506/34/354(B)/323 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed, subject to petitioner depositing a sum of ₹ 10,000/- in the Advocates Welfare Fund of Rohini Court within a period of 07 days from date and the compliance report of the same be filed with the Registry of this Court.

12. In view of above, the present petition stands disposed of.

13. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
