1. The learned counsel for the respondent, on instructions, submits that the documents filed by the original petitioner no. 2, now the only remaining petitioner in the present writ petition, have been found to be genuine and, accordingly, further consequential action with respect to the benefits that are to be accorded to the petitioner, is in the process of being taken.
2. Let the said exercise be completed within a period of four weeks from today.
3. Taking the statements of the learned counsel for the respondent on record, the petition is, accordingly, disposed of. The pending applications also stand disposed of.
