ORDER

27.03.2025

1. Learned counsel for respondent/defendant submits that without prejudice to their rights and contentions, they would have no objection if plaintiff/petitioner is granted one last and final opportunity to examine his alleged three witnesses.
2. Learned counsel for petitioner/plaintiff submits that he would ensure that all three witnesses i.e. Mr. Irshad Alam, Mr. Vishal Bedi and concerned police official are examined by him without any further delay.
3. Keeping in mind the overall facts and circumstances of the case and the concession given by Ms. Deepika Gawri, learned counsel for respondent/defendant, the present petition is allowed and petitioner/plaintiff is permitted to examine the aforesaid three witnesses.
4. It is, however, clarified that petitioner would be entitled to only one effective opportunity in this regard and under no circumstance, she would be
