1. The instant petition was filed, seeking quashing of FIR on the basis of a settlement, with the consent of Respondent No. 2. However, since Respondent No. 2 has not been cooperating, the Petitioner's counsel on instructions, states that he would like to withdraw the petition.

2. Dismissed as withdrawn. It is clarified that in case there is a genuine settlement between the parties, they shall be at liberty to apply to the Court for appropriate orders, in accordance with law.
