3. No orders can be passed in that regard.
4. The learned Standing Counsel for the State fairly states that the petitioners have never approached the Beat Officer and they are at liberty to visit the Police Station as and when they feel and threat to their life and liberty. In addition, he states that as and when they approach the Police Station, the Beat Officer would provide his phone number and they will be at liberty to call on the said number in case of any threat to their life and liberty.
