% ORDER
10.09.2025

CRL.M.A. 27077/2025 (seeking early hearing)

1. For the grounds and reasons stated in the application, the same is allowed and the main petition is called on board today itself.
2. The application stands disposed of.

W.P.(CRL) 2092/2025

3. The Petitioner is a convict in FIR No. 177/2006, registered at P.S. Nabi Karim, for the offenses under Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860¹. As per the Nominal Roll, he has been in custody for 17 years, 4 months and 16 days. He has also earned remission of 3 years, 6 months and 5 days.

4. The Petitioner's request for grant of parole was rejected by Home (General Department) of the Government of NCT of Delhi by order dated 2nd June 2025, in view of Rule 1211(iii) of the Delhi Prison Rules, 2018. It has also been noted that the overall jail conduct of the Petitioner has been unsatisfactory, as he had absconded during parole/furlough on multiple occasions and had to be re-arrested.

5. The Court has considered the above contentions. The Petitioner seeks parole to find a suitable match for his elder daughter and to admit his younger daughter, who has just turned five years old, into school.

6. While the concern raised by the State is indeed significant, given that the Petitioner absconded during parole/furlough on three occasions, it is also relevant to note that these instances occurred in 2016, 2020, and most recently on 4th March 2024. Since then, his jail conduct has been reported as satisfactory for the past one year.

7. Considering the long duration of incarceration, his satisfactory conduct during the last one year, the immediate needs cited by the Petitioner, the Court is inclined to allow the request for parole, subject to strict conditions.

8. The Petitioner is granted parole for a period of three weeks from the date of his release, on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of INR 10,000/- with two sureties in the like amount to the satisfaction of the concerned Jail Superintendent, subject to the following conditions:

- (i) The Petitioner shall report to the concerned SHO once a week, every Monday, during the period of parole.
- (ii) The Petitioner shall furnish his telephone number to the concerned

SHO, which the Petitioner will keep operational at all times.

(iii) The Petitioner shall surrender before the Jail Authorities at the expiry of the period of parole.

9. The petition is disposed of in the above terms.

10. A copy of the order be sent to the concerned Jail Superintendent for necessary information and compliance.
