He emphasises that the managing committee has been superseded by the Registrar, Cooperative Society and no order has been passed directing holding of fresh elections.

3. After some arguments, learned counsel for the Applicant on instructions of Mr. Kartar Singh Dahiya, who is personally present in Court, states that whatever records of the Cooperative Society are available with the Cooperative Society shall be handed over to the Administrator today itself.

4. He further states that the Applicant shall not represent to any one that there is a managing committee of the Respondent-Cooperative Society in office.

5. Recording the aforesaid undertakings and holding the Applicant bound by the same, the present application is disposed of.”

4. On a pointed query to the learned counsel for the petitioner as to which direction of the aforesaid order has not been complied with and by whom, he is not able to answer the same.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner draws attention of this Court to letter dated 15.06.2024 sent by Office of Sub Divisional Magistrate (Punjabi Bagh) to SHO, Paschim Vihar, West, New Delhi, wherein the directions have been given to provide assistance for search operation with respect to the office of the society to collect the records.

6. This Court finds no connection of the aforesaid letter with the order dated 01.06.2024 for non-compliance of which the present petition has been filed. Learned counsel for the petitioner has not been able to satisfy the query of this Court. In view of the above, the present petition is dismissed and disposed of.
