08.09.2025

1. By way of the present petition, the petitioners seek quashing of the FIR bearing No. 0221/2016, registered at Police Station Sagarpur, New Delhi, for the commission of offences punishable under Sections 323/341/354(B)/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereafter 'IPC') and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom .
2. Issue notice. The learned APP accepts notice on behalf of the State.
3. All the petitioners are and respondent no.2 are present before this

Court and have been identified by their counsel and Investigating Officer (IO) concerned.

4. Brief facts of the case are that the on 24.03.2016, due to some misunderstanding a dispute had arisen between the petitioners and the respondent no. 2. Thereafter, upon the complaint by respondent no. 2, the present FIR came to be registered against the petitioners herein. It is stated both the parties are neighbours in relation and with intervention of the family, friends and respected members of the society, the parties have now amicably settled their dispute vide Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) dated 28.11.2024.

5. On a query made by this Court, respondent no. 2 who has been identified by the IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. Therefore, she has no objection if the FIR is quashed.

6. In view of the above, that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, and without any coercion, no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

7. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 0221/2016, registered at Police Station Sagarpur, New Delhi, for the commission of offences punishable under Sections 323/341/354(B)/34 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

8. The petition stands disposed of.

9. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
