registered against the petitioners, initially for the commission of offence punishable under Section 308/34 of IPC, at Police Station Greater Kailash, New Delhi. After completion of investigation, the chargesheet was filed for commission of offence punishable under Section 308/392/34 of IPC, before the concerned Court. During the pendency of the present case, with the intervention of respectable persons of the locality, both the parties have arrived at a compromise vide Settlement Deed/Compromise Deed dated 19.10.2022.

4. The learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondents states that respondent no. 2 had unfortunately passed away on 27.10.2020.

5. On a query made by this Court, respondent no. 3 who has been identified by the IO, has categorically stated that he has entered into compromise out of his own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. Therefore, he has no objection, if the FIR is quashed.

6. In view of the above, that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will, and without any coercion, no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

7. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 394/2014, registered at Police Station Greater Kailash, New Delhi, for the offences punishable under Sections 308/392/34 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed, subject to the petitioners depositing the cost of Rs.10,000/- each with the Advocates Welfare Fund, Saket Courts, New Delhi within fifteen days.
