

$~O-10

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ ARB.P. 972/2025

THINKSPACE CONSULTANTS PVT. LTD .....Petitioner

Through: Mr. Mayank Wadhwa, Mr. Digvijay
Singh and Ms. Eccha Shukla and Ms.
Muskan Gupta, Advs.

versus

SURJIT TOKAS & ORS. .....Respondent

Through: Mr. K. S. Negi, Adv.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PURUSHAINDRA KUMAR KAURAV

ORDER

% 10.10.2025

1. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents raises an objection that there is no unequivocal clause enabling the parties to refer the dispute to the Arbitration. The respondents are bound by this statement.
2. Under these circumstances, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that he would like to withdraw the petition with liberty to file civil suit.
3. Accordingly, the instant petition stands dismissed as withdrawn with the aforesaid liberty.

PURUSHAINDRA KUMAR KAURAV, J

OCTOBER 10, 2025/aks/sph