CM APPL. 68889/2025

1. This application has been moved on behalf of the applicant-petitioner with the prayer to decide the questions of law and also for imposing heavy costs on the respondents.
2. By means of our order dated 19.08.2025, we had expressed our opinion that continuance of proceedings of the writ petition may not yield any fruitful result in favour of the petitioner for the reason that the work under the subject tender had started long ago and has been completed as well.
3. We had granted time to the learned counsel for petitioner to seek instructions from the petitioner. However, today an application has been moved with a prayer to decide the questions of law.
4. Having noticed the fact that the work under the subject tender had already started long ago and has even been completed, if the proceedings of this writ petition are continued, the same are not going to yield any fruitful result to the petitioner. In this view of the matter, deciding the questions of law is also not warranted.

5. Accordingly, the petition is rendered infructuous and is dismissed as such. However, we provide that the questions of law may be decided in some other matter, if the same arise in an appropriate case.

6. The next date i.e. 14.11.2025, stands cancelled.

7. All pending applications are also disposed of.
