ORDER

1. By way of the instant petition, the petitioner seek quashing of FIR bearing No.246/2019, registered at Police Station Paschim Vihar, East, Delhi, for commission of offence punishable under Sections 323/363/365/506 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereafter 'IPC').
2. Issue notice. The learned APP accepts notice on behalf of the State.
3. The petitioner and respondent no. 2 are present before this Court and have been identified by their counsel and Investigating Officer (IO) from Police Station Paschim Vihar, East, Delhi.
4. Brief facts of the present case are that the petitioner is mother-in-law of respondent no. 2. It is stated that due to some misunderstanding, respondent no. 2 had lodged a complaint against the petitioner culminated into the present FIR. During pendency of the case, both the parties had amicably settled their disputes vide Mediation Settlement dated 28.01.2025 before the Mediation Centre, Dwarka Courts, New Delhi.
5. On a query made by this Court, respondent no.2 who has been identified by the IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent no.2 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between them.

6. The present FIR was registered for commission of offence punishable under Sections 323/363/365/506 of IPC. However, this Court takes note of the fact that a matrimonial dispute had been arisen between the parties. The accused in this case is the grandmother of the child, who is a special child. After the case was compromised between the parties, the custody of the child has been handed over to the father/son of the petitioner herein.

7. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, and without any coercion, no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

8. Accordingly, FIR bearing no. 246/2019, registered at Police Station Paschim Vihar, East, Delhi, for commission of offence punishable under Sections 323/363/365/506 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

9. In view of above, the present petition stands disposed of.

10. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
