ORDER

% 28.05.2025

CM APPL No.33943/2025

1. The respondents/applicants have filed the present application in the above-captioned disposed of appeal, inter alia, praying as under:

- a. Grant a period of at least 12 months, or any such period as the present Hon'ble Court may deem fit, to transition to the new brand by way of the activities mentioned in paragraph 4 (a) to (e);
- b. Grant a period of 6 months to exhaust the inventory currently being held by the Respondents;"

2. Mr. Rajshekhar Rao, learned senior counsel appearing for the respondents/applicants submits that respondents/applicants have taken a conscious decision to change their trade mark. He further submits that the respondents/applicants now sustain seventy-five [75] full time employees and directly supports 200-300 dependents. He submits that in the aforesaid context, the respondents/applicants seek some time for making the transition.

3. The respondents/applicants also seek a period of six months to exhaust their inventory held by them.
4. We do not consider it apposite to examine the same in this disposed of appeal. However, the respondents/applicants will be at liberty to file an appropriate application before the learned Single Judge to seek such reliefs as are prayed in the present application.
5. It is clarified that if any such an application is moved by the respondents/applicants, the learned Single Judge would not be precluded from considering the same on account of the order passed in the present appeal.
6. The learned senior counsel also states that the respondents/applicants be granted liberty to approach the appellant/non-applicant for amicable resolution of the disputes.
7. The learned counsel for the appellant/non-applicant has joined the proceedings through videoconferencing, although he is not visible on screen. He also submits that the parties be referred to mediation for an amicable resolution of the disputes.
8. Accordingly, the parties are directed to appear before the Delhi High Court Medication & Conciliation Centre [DHCMCC] on 30.05.2025 at 3:00 PM.
9. The application is disposed of.
