The appellant has not been served. As per the report, he is not residing at the given address. Learned counsel for the appellant has also not been served.

Learned counsel for the respondent states that the present appeal has become infructuous as the respondent has already taken over possession of the premises in question, and has executed a gift deed in favor of Jitender Singh Kushwaha, the respondent's son.

Accordingly, the present appeal is dismissed in default for non-prosecution.
