2. In nutshell, the dispute arose from a family matter. The complainant, Suresh Kumar, alleged that his daughter had eloped and married the brother of petitioner Mukesh against the family's wishes, which created hostility between the families. On 01.06.2019, at about 7:00 a.m., Mukesh, along with his relatives and associates, allegedly attacked Suresh Kumar, his wife Sunita, and his son outside their house using iron rods/pipes, causing head and bodily injuries. Thereafter, the instant FIR was lodged.

9. On a query made by this Court, respondent no. 2 has categorically stated that he has entered into compromise on his own free will and without any pressure. It is also stated by him that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties.
10. Keeping in view the fact that the matter stands amicably been settled between the petitioners and respondent no. 2 amicably without any pressure and that the nature of injuries are simple, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the matter pending, rather the same would further increase the acrimony among the parties.

11. It is, thus, in the interest of justice to quash the afore-mentioned FIR and the proceedings emanating therefrom.

12. Hence, in light of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court passed in Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab (2012) 10 SCC 303, FIR no. 197/2019 registered at Police Station Begum Pur for offences punishable under Sections 307/308/324/323/34 of the IPC, 1860 and consequent proceedings emanating therefrom, are quashed qua the present petitioners.
