1. Heard learned counsel representing the parties.
2. On being pointed out that this petition purportedly filed in public interest does not contain adequate pleadings and material, learned counsel representing the petitioners states that he may be permitted to withdraw the present petition with liberty to file a fresh petition.
3. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for.
4. We make it clear that any fresh petition may be entertained by the Court only if it is found that the petition contains adequate pleadings and material.
