1. Petitioner is aggrieved by order dated 31.01.2025 passed by learned National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (in short "NCDRC") whereby the appeals filed by the complainant as well as by the opposite party (petitioner herein) have been disposed of by a composite order.
2. The abovesaid order also clearly records that the counsel for opposite party himself agreed to pay decretal amount with interest @ 9% per annum from the date of deposit but wanted waiver of compensation of Rs.1 lac which had been awarded by learned State Commission.
3. It seems that the appeal has been disposed of by keeping in mind the abovesaid contention made by the opposite party as the component of compensation of Rs.1 lac has been waived.
4. During course of the arguments, it was argued by learned counsel for petitioner that there was never any such contention coming from the side of the opposite party and that there is some error apparent on record.

5. However, after hearing arguments for some time, learned counsel for petitioner, without prejudice to his rights and contentions, does not press the present petition and submits that he would file appropriate application before the learned NCDRC seeking requisite clarification with respect to the abovesaid aspect.

6. The present petition is disposed of as not pressed in aforesaid terms.

7. Pending applications also stand disposed of in aforesaid terms.

8. All rights and contentions of the parties are reserved.
