%

1. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that he has instructions not to press the present appeal as the appellant wishes to approach the Competent Court having necessary territorial jurisdiction.
2. The appeal is, as prayed for, dismissed as withdrawn, by granting liberty to the appellant to approach the Competent Court.
3. However, we make it clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the appeal.
4. Pending application also stands disposed of.
