ORDER

1. The present petition has been filed by the petitioner (an Indian citizen), who got married to Peng Wei, a Chinese National on 21.02.2023. The petitioner and his wife are stated to be the law abiding persons. The wife of the petitioner is stated to have visited India on several occasions between the year 2014-2021.

2. The present petition has been filed by the petitioner on account of the fact that when the petitioner's wife sought to enter India on 24.05.2024, the petitioner's wife was denied entry to India on account of alleged blacklisting. Hence, the present petition has been filed, inter alia, seeking the following prayers:

"a) Direct the Respondents to place on record such order of blacklisting basis which the Petitioner's wife has been denied entry at the port of India and as such provide a copy of the same to the Petitioner; and

b) Strike down any such order of blacklisting issued by the Respondent by exercising the Hon'ble Court's power of writ of mandamus as given by Art. 226 of Constitution of India; and

c) As a sequitur thereto, declare the backlisting of the wife of the Petitioner as bad in law, quashing and striking down such order of blacklisting; and

d) Direct the relevant authorities to grant appropriate spouse visa to the Petitioner's wife to enable the Petitioner and his wife to permanently reside in India and enjoy their rightful matrimonial life without any conditions; and"

3. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that he has written instructions to the following effect:

"It is stated that the records of this office have been checked and found that the petitioner's wife is a Chinese national Ms. Wei Peng who deported in the year 2021 on 26.02.2021 from India on account of her overstay and non-compliance of exit permits issued to her multiple times (5 times) on her previous visit. Now when she arrived in India at IGI Airport Delhi on 24.05.2024, she was found under adverse reporting on account of her visa violations on her previous visit, for which she was denied entry at IGI Airport.

Now on 15.09.2025, the record has been checked again and the record reflects nothing adverse against her as on date. In view of the above, she can arrive in India on a valid Indian visa."

4. As such, it is affirmed that currently there exists no order of blacklisting or any adverse remark/s which would preclude the petitioner's wife from entering into India, subject to their having a valid visa for the said purpose. The said statement is taken on record.

5. The above redresses the limited grievance canvassed by the petitioner in the present petition. Accordingly, the present petitions stands disposed of.
