ORDER

% 18.08.2025

1. By the present petition, the petitioner essentially seeks protection to her life and liberty from one Vishnu Menaria and his associates. The petitioner is a foreign national. The petitioner and her husband had filed two complaints against Vishnu Menaria and his mother under 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.
2. The petitioner alleges that she was assaulted at the hands of Vishnu Menaria due to the ongoing legal proceedings, and further apprehends threat to her life and liberty. It is the grievance of the petitioner that despite an FIR being registered against the accused Vishnu Menaria, the petitioner continues to face imminent threat to her life.

3. At the outset, the learned Additional Standing Counsel for the State submits that the petitioner would be provided the phone number of the Beat Officer, and that she would be at liberty to call the concerned officer in case she feels any immediate threat to her life and liberty.
4. He submits that as and when any such complaint is received, prompt action will be taken. He submits that the Beat Officer would also be sensitised in that regard.
5. Considering the above, no orders are required to be passed at this stage.
6. Needless to say, the petitioner is at liberty to approach this Court in case any grievance remains in the future.
