

$~49, 56 & 57

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

EX.F.A. 34/2025, CM APPL. 51251/2025, CM APPL. 51252/2025

SANAM GULATI

.....Appellant

Through: Mr. Kadil Gulati and Mr. Jeevesh
Mehta, Advs.

versus

V K GUPTA

.....Respondent

Through: None.

56

EX.F.A. 35/2025, CM APPL. 51429/2025, CM APPL. 51430/2025

TILAK RAJ MALIK THROUGH SPA

.....Appellant

Through: Mr. Kadil Gulati and Mr. Jeevesh
Mehta, Advs.

versus

V.K GUPTA

.....Respondent

Through: None.

57

+ EX.F.A. 36/2025, CM APPL. 51434/2025, CM APPL. 51435/2025

KIRAN GULATI SINCE DECEASED THR SPA

.....Appellant

Through: Mr. Kadil Gulati and Mr. Jeevesh
Mehta, Advs.

versus

V K GUPTA & ANR.

.....Respondents

Through: None.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SAURABH BANERJEE

ORDER

20.08.2025

%

1. After some arguments, learned counsel for the appellants seeks leave to withdraw the present appeals and take appropriate remedies in accordance with law, particularly in light of the following observation made by the executing court in the impugned order dated 07.03.2025:

“Accordingly, the present execution petition is dismissed with liberty to the DH to file it afresh as and when, he is able to find out the means of JD to satisfy the decree.”

2. In view of the above, the present appeals along with the pending applications are dismissed with liberty as prayed above.

SAURABH BANERJEE, J

AUGUST 20, 2025/bh