versus

STATE NCT OF DELHI

.....Respondent

Through: Mr. Kishitiz Garg, Advocate.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GIRISH KATHPALIA

ORDER

19.08.2025

1. It is informed by both sides that in furtherance of last order, petitioner no.1 and 3 duly surrendered but petitioner no.2 did not.
2. After part arguments, learned counsel for petitioners on instructions assures that petitioner no.2 would surrender within one week. Learned counsel for respondent/State submits that subject to petitioner no.2 surrendering within one week, her application for premature release shall be considered and decided in accordance with policy of 2004 by the next SRB.
3. As regards petitioner no.3, who has already surrendered, learned counsel for State assures that his case shall be put up afresh before the next SRB.
4. As regards petitioner no.1, he has to file fresh petition(s) challenging the rejection order in terms with last order.
5. In the above background, learned counsel for petitioners seeks permission to withdraw this petition with liberty to file fresh petition(s) depending upon outcome of the fresh consideration.

6. Accordingly, the petition as well as the pending application is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as sought.
