ORDER

25.08.2025

1. The present application is filed seeking regular bail in FIR No. 252/2025 ('FIR') dated 27.07.2025, registered at Police Station Sonia Vihar, for offences under Sections 309(6)/3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.
2. The FIR was registered on a complaint given by one Akhilesh Sharma. It is alleged that the accused persons including the applicant forcibly snatched the complainant's car and his mobile phone. The same led to the registration of the FIR.
3. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that the parties are known to each other and have already settled their disputes. He submits that in such circumstances, no fruitful purpose would be served by subjecting the applicant to further incarceration.

4. It is stated that the parties are known to each other.
5. The complainant is present in Court today. On being asked, the complainant states that he has settled all the disputes with the applicant and that he has no objection if the applicant is admitted on bail.
6. The applicant is in custody since 28.07.2025.
7. Considering that the complainant has stated that he has settled the disputes with the applicant and has no objection if the applicant is admitted on bail, this Court considers it apposite to allow the present bail application.
8. The applicant is therefore admitted on bail and is directed to be released on furnishing a personal bond for a sum of ₹20,000/- with one surety of the like amount, subject to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court, on the following conditions:
 - a. The applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case or tamper with the evidence of the case, in any manner whatsoever;
 - b. The applicant shall under no circumstance leave the country without the permission of the learned Trial Court;
 - c. The applicant shall appear before the learned Trial Court as and when directed;
 - d. The applicant shall provide the address where he would be residing after his release and shall not change the address without informing the concerned IO/ SHO;
 - e. The applicant shall, upon his release, give his mobile number to the concerned IO/SHO and shall keep his mobile phone switched on at all times.

9. In the event of there being any FIR/DD entry/complaint lodged against the applicant, it would be open to the respondent to seek redressal by filing an application seeking cancellation of bail.

10. It is clarified that any observations made in the present order are for the purpose of deciding the present bail application and should not influence the outcome of the trial and also not be taken as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.

11. The bail application is allowed in the aforementioned terms.
