2. Counsel for the Petitioners acknowledges that chargesheet has now been filed and the matter is now to be heard on the point of charge. Accordingly, after making some submissions, she states that she would like to withdraw the present petition with liberty to raise the grounds urged in the present petition before the Trial Court, at the time of arguments on charge.
3. Counsel for the Petitioners requests that the Trial Court be directed to expeditiously hear the arguments on the charge. She further assures that the Petitioners will not seek any adjournments in this regard.
