1. Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (hereinafter referred to as 'Cr.PC'), has been filed on behalf of the Petitioners, for quashing of FIR No.418/2024 under Section 118(1)/126(2)/110/3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter referred to as 'BNS') registered at Police Station Shastri Park, Delhi and all the consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, in terms of the Settlement dated 04.09.2024.
2. Issue Notice.
3. On advance Notice, learned ASC has appeared and accepted the Notice on behalf of the State.
4. It is submitted that the parties were all tenants in the same building and had a fight in which simple injury was suffered by the two injured, who are both present in the Court today.

5. On the Complaint of the Respondent No.2/Complainant, FIR No.418/2024 under Section 118(1)/126(2)/110/3(5) of BNS, got registered at Police Station Shastri Park, Delhi

6. It is stated that the Petitioners and the Respondent No. 2 have amicably settled all the disputes and differences between them and arrived at Settlement dated 04.09.2024. In the Settlement, it was inter alia settled between the parties that they shall not file any case in relation to the said disputes against each other or their family members before any competent court of authority in future.

7. Today, the Respondent No. 2 is present in the Court and states that he has no objection if the said FIR is quashed.

8. The parties are present before this Court and have been identified by their Counsel and Investigating Officer concerned and they have entered into the Settlement voluntarily and without any fear and coercion and undertake to remain bound by the terms of the said Settlement.

9. Considering the nature of the allegations and that they have settled the matter, the FIR No.418/2024 under Section 118(1)/126(2)/110/3(5) of BNS, registered at Police Station Shastri Park, Delhi and all the consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

10. The Petition is disposed of accordingly.
