4. Ms. Arpana Gupta, learned counsel appearing on behalf of petitioner submits that petitioner Bank is a secured creditor and had invoked the provisions of SARFAESI Act, 2002 [hereinafter the ‘Act’] by giving notice to the borrower under Section 13 (2) which was followed by a notice under Section 13(4) of the Act.

5. She submits that for the purpose of taking physical possession of the property, assistance of the Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate (CJM) was sought by the petitioner by filing an application under Section 14 of the Act.

6. She submits that the said application was filed on 30.07.2024, which came to be registered on 02.08.2024. Thereafter the matter has been repeatedly adjourned. However, vide order dated 06.08.2025, petitioner was again directed to file requisite affidavit of Chief Manager of the concerned Branch and the matter is now listed on 18.09.2025.

7. She contends that affidavit of authorized officer of the Bank was filed even at the time of filing an application under Section 14 of the Act.

However, pursuant to the order dated 06.08.2025, petitioner has again filed the requisite affidavit of the Chief Manager.

8. She submits that the period prescribed under Section 14 of the Act for the disposal of an application under the said provision is 30 days which can be extended for an aggregate period of 60 days for reasons to be recorded in writing.

9. She submits that as the petition was filed on 30.07.2024, a period of more than one year has elapsed, but the application under Section 14 of the Act has not been disposed of.

10. This Court has perused various orders of the learned CJM placed on record which suggests that the matter has been adjourned most of the time without any justification.

11. Having regard to the submissions articulated by Ms. Gupta as well as the orders of learned CJM placed on record, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to the learned CJM to dispose of the applications of the petitioner/Bank under Section 14 of the Act within a period of four weeks from today.

12. The petitions stand disposed of.
