2. The present bail application has been preferred on the ground of surgery of petitioner's father, who is stated to be suffering from Ambilical Hernia. It is submitted that surgery is to be performed on 23.09.2025.
3. The application has been opposed by the learned APP, stating that even if granted bail, the petitioner may not be able to attend the surgery tomorrow. He further submits that the married sister of the petitioner can also attend to her father at the time of surgery. According to him, petitioner is facing trial for the commission of offence under Section 302 IPC. Since the medical condition of the father of the petitioner has been verified and his surgery is to be performed on 23.09.2025, I deem it appropriate to grant interim bail to the petitioner for a period of 15 days from the date of his release, upon his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial court/learned MM/Duty MM, subject to the following conditions:-
