2. As per the status report filed by the State, regarding the present e-FIR, Standing Order No. CRIME/26/2024 of Delhi Police provides an online system for e-FIR/e- NCR registration, specifically for property related crimes such as theft, burglary and motor vehicle theft. However, this case pertains to allegation of cheating, which according to learned APP is not eligible for registration of e-FIR registration. 3. Learned APP appearing for the State submits that after cancellation of e-FIR, the complaint has been transferred to EOW Cell for necessary action.

4. Mr. Akshay Chandra, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, under instructions, states that since FIR has already been cancelled, he does not want to press the present petition for quashing the FIR and seeks permission to withdraw the same.

5. The statement made by learned counsel is taken on record and petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
