5. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant has submitted that the latter is the mother of Amit, against whom the allegation is that he was in a live-in relationship with the deceased, and has been falsely implicated in the present case on the basis of the allegations made by the deceased. It is further submitted that admittedly, the present applicant was not living with the deceased or her son, Amit, at the residence where the incident had taken place in the present case. It is further submitted that the case of the prosecution against the present applicant is similar to that of her other son, Vinay (co-accused), who has been granted bail by this Court vide order dated 10.01.2025 in BAIL APPLN. 4362/2024.

6. Per contra, learned APP for the State, assisted by learned counsel appearing on behalf of the complainant, submits that the allegations against the present applicant are serious in nature. It is further submitted that the deceased in her video, which can be taken as a dying declaration, has clearly taken the applicant's name as a person who alongwith Amit has been harassing her. It is further submitted that the statement of the previous husband of the deceased has also been recorded, wherein he had stated that the deceased had told him that she has been harassed by Amit and his family members, which include the present applicant as well as her husband and other son, Vinay.

7. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

8. This Court while granting bail to the co-accused, Vinay, in the aforesaid bail application has observed as under: -

“9. Admittedly, the present applicant is the brother of Amit, who was alleged to be in a live-in relationship with the deceased, however, the present applicant, as per the case of the prosecution, was not staying with them or has ever resided with them. The veracity of the video as well as the statement made by the previous husband of the deceased or any other evidence relied upon by the prosecution will be tested during the course of the trial. The investigation in the present FIR stands complete, chargesheet has been filed and the matter is at the stage of consideration on the point of charge before the learned Trial Court.

10. As pointed out hereinabove, the allegation qua the present applicant is that in the video which was sent by the deceased to her sister/complainant, it has been stated that Amit alongwith the present applicant and their father and mother have been torturing her. Apart from the said video, there is no other specific allegation against the present applicant. As per the nominal roll dated 02.01.2025, the applicant has been in custody since 16.09.2023 and has been incarcerated since then and the conclusion of trial is likely to take some time.”

9. The case of the prosecution against the present applicant is similar to that of the co-accused, Vinay, who has been granted bail by this Court with the aforesaid observation. Chargesheet in the present case has been filed and the case kept for consideration on the point of charge before the learned Trial Court. The present applicant has been in custody since the date of her arrest, i.e., 16.0.2023 and no useful purpose will be served in keeping her in prolonged incarceration.

10. In totality of the facts and circumstances of the present case, the present application is allowed. The applicant is directed to be released on bail, on her furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 25,000/- alongwith one surety of like amount, to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court/Link Court, further subject to following conditions: -

- i. The applicant shall not leave India without prior permission of the learned Trial Court.
