On 08.07.2016, some communication took place between petitioner and respondent no.2 about their education as well as friendly relations. The petitioner, however, wrongly misunderstood such relation beyond the friendship and developed affection towards respondent no.2 and sudden denial of communication on the part of respondent no.2 made the petitioner somewhat possessive and the petitioner attempted to make her understand about their relationship but due to misunderstanding on the part of respondent no.2 regarding the bona fide intent of the petitioner turned into lodging of the present FIR against the petitioner under the relevant sections. It is further stated that both the parties have now amicably settled their disputes vide Compromise Deed dated 09.09.2024, entered between them.

On a query made by this Court, respondent no.2 who has been identified by the concerned IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent no. 2 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties. Therefore, she has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

7. In view of the above fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

8. Accordingly, FIR bearing no. 585/2016, registered at Police Station Mukherjee Nagar, Delhi for the commission of offences punishable under Sections 341/354/506 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed, Subject to petitioner depositing a cost of Rs.10,000/- with the Delhi High Court Advocates Welfare Trust within a period of two weeks from date.
