ORDER

% 06.08.2025

I.A. 19088/2025 (u/O XXIII R 3 CPC)

1. Plaintiff, defendant nos.2, 3, and 5 are personally present, along with their counsel. They submit that they have amicably settled their grievance, and therefore, in terms of the mediation settlement, the plaintiff does not intend to prosecute the instant civil suit.
2. Order XXIII, Rule 3 authorizes the Court to pass a decree on a compromise wherein the parties to the dispute have made an arrangement to settle the dispute.
3. It has been comprehensively stated in the provision that the settlement arrived at should meet the essentials laid down therein, namely, (i) the compromise is lawful, (ii) it is reduced in writing, (iii) it is duly signed by the parties arriving at the compromise.

4. The settlement has been agreed upon without fear or coercion, and the parties appear to have entered into the settlement agreement on their own volition.

5. The Court is satisfied that the settlement has been arrived at between the parties following due procedure and meeting the essentials specified in Order XXIII, Rule 3. Therefore, the parties shall be bound by the aforesaid settlement agreement.

6. In view of the aforesaid, the settlement arrived at amongst the parties is taken on record.

7. The parties shall be bound by the terms thereto.

8. In view of the aforesaid, the civil suit stands decreed in terms of the settlement agreement.

9. The Registry is directed to draw-up a decree sheet.

10. The civil suit, along with the pending application(s), stands disposed of.
