Therefore, the name of the petitioner cannot be removed from the SCRB database by the concerned Police Station.
2. This Court is also informed that if the petitioner desires verification, endorsement, or stamping of his order of acquittal passed by the Trial Court for any official purpose, he may visit the concerned Police Station with a certified copy of the order of acquittal. Upon verification, the same shall be duly stamped/endorsed as per rules.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner states that in view of the fact that the petitioner can approach the concerned police station with the certified copy of the order of acquittal which will be duly stamped as per rules, he does not want to pursue the present petition.
