Police Station Vasant Kunj, New Delhi. The order of bail which was passed by a learned Single Judge of this Court in the said case specifically prohibits the petitioner from leaving the jurisdiction of the GNCTD without prior permission of the Trial Court.

3. The petitioner is thus placed in a situation in which there is a judicial order which has prohibited him from leaving the province of Delhi and an order by the respondents directing him to join his parent regiment at Assam.

4. With consent of parties, in these circumstances, we dispose of this writ petition by directing that the petitioner would not be required to rejoin duties at Assam, subject to liberty being reserved with the respondents to move an appropriate application and obtaining a modification of the restraint against the petitioner's leaving the GNCTD.

5. The writ petition is disposed of in the aforesaid terms. Pending application, if any, also stands disposed of.
