9. It is stated that the marriage between the Petitioner No. 1 and the Respondent No. 2, had already been dissolved as per Muslim customs on 26.04.2017. It is also stated that the Petitioner No. 1/wife has got re-married and is now residing happily in her matrimonial home.

12. Today, the Respondent No. 2/husband, who is present in the Court, states that he has no objection if the FIR is quashed alongwith all the proceedings emanating therefrom.

13. In view of the above facts that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will and without any coercion and also the fact that the present matter is a family matter, no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them.
