The parties have reaffirmed the terms of the settlement arrived at vide Compromise Deed dated 23.11.2024 and they also submit that the said Compromise Deed has been arrived at between the parties without any pressure and coercion.

10. Today, the complainant/respondent No. 2/wife, who is present in

11. In view of the above facts that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will and without any coercion and also the fact that the present matter is a family matter, I am of the opinion that no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. Hence, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

12. Moreover, there is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.
