CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJEEV NARULA

ORDER

26.11.2025

1. The Petitioner, who is life convict in FIR No. 248/2010 under Sections 365/376(2)(g)/506/34 of Indian Penal Code, 1860¹ registered at P.S. Dhaula Kuan, seeks grant of parole for a period of three months on account of pregnancy of his wife which is now at the stage of delivery.

2. As per the nominal roll dated 10th November, 2025, the Petitioner has undergone 13 years, 1 month and 11 days of custody and has earned remission of 2 years, 6 months and 15 days. He has availed parole and furlough on several occasions. His jail conduct for the last one year has been reported as satisfactory; however, his overall conduct has been recorded as unsatisfactory due to a single punishment dated 25th May, 2022 for violation of conditions of emergency parole. The nominal roll also notes pendency of two cases registered in 2020 and 2021, when the Petitioner was on parole/furlough.

3. On the last date of hearing, the Court had directed the State to verify the medical documents relating to the pregnancy of the Petitioner's spouse. The verification report has since been filed and confirms that the spouse is due for delivery.

4. Ms. Sanya Kumar, counsel for the Petitioner, submits that, considering the long period of custody, satisfactory jail conduct, and the special circumstances arising out of his spouse's medical condition, the Petitioner should be granted parole. She further points out that even after registration of the cases in 2020 and 2021, the Petitioner was granted parole and furlough on multiple occasions.

5. Mr. Sanjay Lao, SC for the State, opposes the prayer and submits that the Petitioner's antecedents, coupled with his overall jail conduct being recorded as unsatisfactory, and his involvement in criminal activity while on parole/furlough, render the present request liable to be rejected.

6. The Court has considered the submissions and the material on record. It is noted that despite the pendency of the cases registered in 2020 and 2021, the Petitioner has been granted parole and furlough in 2023 and 2025, without any subsequent violations being reported. Having regard to the length of custody already undergone and the special circumstances duly verified relating to the delivery of the Petitioner's spouse, the Court is of the view that the Petitioner is entitled to parole.

7. It is noted that as per nominal roll, the Petitioner is resident of Dhauj, Billa Colony, Sector-55 Faridabad, Haryana.

8. Accordingly, the Petitioner is directed to be released on parole for a period of four weeks from the date of release, subject to furnishing a personal bond of INR 10,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Jail Superintendent, and subject to the following conditions:

- i. During the period the Petitioner remains out on parole, the Petitioner shall report to the SHO, Police Station- PS Sector 55, Faridabad, Haryana on every Saturday at 4pm and will not be kept waiting for more than an hour.
- ii. The Petitioner shall also provide the SHO, Police PS Sector 55, Faridabad, Haryana with mobile/telephone number which shall be kept in working condition at all times and shall not switch off or change the mobile number without prior intimation to the SHO concerned. The mobile location be kept on at all times.
- iii. The Petitioner shall not indulge in any criminal activity and shall not communicate with or come in contact with the complainant/victim or any member of the complainant/victim's family or tamper with the evidence of the case.
- iv. The Petitioner is directed to surrender before the jail authorities at the expiry of the period of parole.

9. The petition is disposed of accordingly along with pending application.

10. Copy of the order be sent to the Jail Superintendent for information and necessary compliance.
