% ORDER
16.01.2025

After making some submissions, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners seeks leave to withdraw the present petition with liberty to raise all contentions, both factual and legal, before the learned trial court where the matter is pending at the stage of conclusion of defence evidence.

The petition is accordingly disposed-of as withdrawn, with liberty as prayed-for; without making any observations on the merits of the matter.

Pending applications, if any, also stand disposed-of.
