3. This writ petition is preferred on behalf of the Petitioner under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking the following reliefs:-

“(a) Quash and set aside the impugned letter dated 09.09.2024 issued by the Respondent, which invalidates the Petitioner's Form A and Form B, on the grounds of being arbitrary, vague, and violative of principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.

4. Learned counsel for the Election Commission of India/Respondent No.1 takes a preliminary objection to the maintainability of this petition and in support relies on a judgment of the Division Bench of this Court in Swami Chakrapani v. Election Commission of India, 2021 SCC OnLine Del 4432, wherein the Division Bench has held that inter se disputes between different rival groups of a political party are not to be resolved by Election Commission of India and the correct course is to file a declaratory suit or resort to any other appropriate civil remedy.

5. Faced with this, learned counsel for the Petitioner, on instructions, seeks to withdraw this writ petition in terms of the aforementioned judgment, with liberty to take recourse to appropriate legal remedies before the appropriate Forum.

6. Writ petition is disposed of as withdrawn, with liberty as prayed for, in accordance with law, making it clear that this Court has neither entered into nor expressed any opinion on the merits of the case.

7. Pending application stands disposed of.
