CRL.M.A. 9828/2025

1. Exemption allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. The application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.C. 2184/2025

3. The instant petition under Section 528 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (hereinafter "BNSS") [earlier Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (hereinafter "CrPC.")] has been filed on behalf of the petitioners praying for quashing of FIR bearing No. 373/2019, registered at Police Station, Punjabi Bagh for offences punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereinafter “IPC”).

4. The brief facts of the case are that the marriage between petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 was solemnized on 19.02.2019 at Delhi, according to Hindu rites and ceremonies. However, due to some temperamental differences between them, shortly after their marriage, they started living separately. No child was born from the said wedlock.

5. Despite efforts at reconciliation, both the parties could not settle their differences pursuant to which respondent no. 2 got FIR no. 373/2019 registered.

6. However, at this stage, with the intervention of family members and relatives, both the parties have entered into a settlement/Memorandum of Understanding dated 24.07.2021 (hereinafter “MOU”). The terms and conditions of the said settlement are mentioned in the MOU which is annexed to the petition. In pursuance of the said settlement, the parties have jointly agreed that they shall move for divorce under Section 13B (1) and under Section 13B (2) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (hereinafter “HMA”) and accordingly, a divorce decree dated 08.10.2021 was passed by the concerned Family Court.

7. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submitted that respondent no.2 has settled all her claims in respect of her dowry articles, stridhan, marriage expenses, jewelries, gift items and claims of past, present and future maintenance and permanent alimony with the petitioners for a sum of ₹ 5,00,000/- and all disputes of any nature whatsoever, out of which the remaining amount of ₹1,00,000/- was agreed to be paid at the time of quashing of the FIR.

8. At this juncture, respondent no. 2 apprised this Court that she has received the entire amount in terms of the MOU.

9. It is, thus, prayed that the instant FIR be quashed on the basis of the MOU.

10. Learned APP for the State, who appears on advance notice, accepts notice and submits that there is no opposition to the prayer made on behalf of the petitioners seeking quashing of the FIR in question in view of the settlement arrived at between the parties.

11. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

12. The petitioners are present before this Court and have been identified by their counsel, Mr. Amarjeet Rai, and the Investigating Officer, SI Mandeep Kumar, Police Station Punjabi Bagh. Respondent no. 2 is also present in the Court and has been identified by the Investigating Officer.

13. The instant criminal proceedings concern non-compoundable offences which are private in nature and do not have a serious impact on society, especially considering that there is a settlement/compromise between the victim and accused.

14. In such cases, it is settled law that High Court is also required to consider the conduct and antecedents of the accused in order to ascertain that the settlement has been entered into by the victim's own free will and has not been imposed upon her by the petitioner or any person related to him.

15. In the case of State of Madhya Pradesh vs. Laxmi Narayan and Ors., (2019) 5 SCC 688, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that the powers conferred under Section 482 of the CrPC/Section 528 of the BNSS, can be exercised by the Courts to quash the criminal proceedings featuring non-compoundable offences, when the matter arises out of matrimonial or family disputes. Moreover, it is pertinent to satisfy the Court that the said non-compoundable offences are private in nature and does not have a serious impact on the society.

16. Furthermore, it was observed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ramgopal and Ors. Vs. The State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021 INSC 568, that the extraordinary power enjoined upon the High Courts under Section 482 of the CrPC/Section 528 of the BNSS can be invoked even when such a case falls within the ambit of non-compoundable offences given that the Court must be satisfied that the nature of the offence does not impact the conscious of the society and that the compromise between the parties is voluntary and amicable.

17. In the present case, the complainant/respondent no. 2 is present in Court and has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise and settled the entire disputes amicably with the petitioners by her own free will without any pressure or coercion. There is also no allegation from respondent no.2 that the conduct and antecedents of petitioners have been bad towards her after the compromise. As per the settlement, the respondent no. 2 has received the entire settled amount. Further, she submitted that she has no objection to the present FIR being quashed.

18. Therefore, in view of the settlement arrived at between the parties and the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the present petition is allowed. Accordingly, FIR bearing No.373/2019, registered at Police Station, Punjabi Bagh for the offences punishable under Sections 498A/406/34 of the IPC and all the consequential proceedings emanating therefrom stands quashed.

19. The petition, along-with pending application(s), if any, stands disposed of.
