%

1. Appellant, who appears in person, submits that he is not interested in pursuing his appeal and, therefore, it may be dismissed as not pressed.
2. Since the appellant appears in person, it has been re-confirmed from him about the statement which is being made by him while also apprising him that at later stage, it will not be possible to seek its restoration. He, however, seems adamant and does not want to continue with his appeal.
3. Resultantly, the present appeal is dismissed as withdrawn.
4. Pending application also stands disposed of in aforesaid terms.
