1. The instant interim bail application has been filed under Section 483 of the BNSS on behalf of the petitioner on the ground of ailment of his wife. The requisite details of the matter are tabulated herein below:

S.No.	Particulars of the Case
1.	FIR Number	213/2023
2.	Concerned Police Station	Panchu
3.	District	Bikaner
4.	Offences alleged in the FIR	Under Section 8/15 and 29 of the NDPS Act
5.	Offences added, if any	-
6.	Date of passing of impugned order	12.12.2024

2. It is averred in the application as well as submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the wife of the petitioner is suffering from serious ailment and is advised to undergo surgery and the presence of the petitioner would be essential in case of emergency and to look after his wife post-surgery. Hence, it is prayed that the petitioner may be granted indulgence of temporary bail of two months.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the bail application.

4. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor. Perused the material made available to this court including the medical documents related to petitioner's wife. As per the submissions made, the wife of the petitioner is suffering from some ailment of serious nature and she has been advised to undergo a surgery. In this background and taking a humanitarian view of the matter, this court deems it fit to grant indulgence of temporary bail of 30 days to the petitioner.

5. Accordingly, the instant interim bail application is allowed and it is ordered that the petitioner named in the cause title shall be released on temporary bail for a period of 30 days from the date of his actual release provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- alongwith two sound and solvent sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the trial court. He shall surrender before the concerned jail authorities in the morning of the next day of the completion of the period of temporary bail.
