persons as also 100 unknown accused persons are said to have come variously armed and attacked the informant and others at the police station. The informant states that he managed to escape, however, the accused persons destroyed the property at the police station.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are not named in the FIR. They have been falsely implicated in the case in course of investigation. The allegations against the petitioners are general and omnibus in nature and several co-accused who are also named in the FIR have been enlarged on bail. It is submitted that the petitioners are in custody since 17.10.2025 and have no criminal antecedent. The petitioners undertake to cooperate in the trial.

5. The application for bail is opposed by learned A.P.P. for the State.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the allegations in the FIR, the petitioners not being named in the FIR, their being in custody since 17.10.2025 and grant of bail to several co-accused vide order dated 28.1.2026 passed in Cr. Misc. no.3341 of 2026 and analogous cases and order dated 28.1.2026 passed in Cr. Misc. no.4936 of 2026, the Court directs the petitioners to be enlarged
