CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHOK KUMAR PANDEY
ORAL ORDER

3 09-04-2026 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2. The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered in connection with Garbandanga P.S. Case No. 15 of 2025 for the offence punishable under Sections 103(1) & 3(5) of the BNS.

3. The case of the prosecution, in short, is that the daughter of the informant was married with the petitioner 20 years ago. It is further alleged that the petitioner used to assault the daughter of the informant and in this regard several times Panchayati was held. On 27.02.2025 the petitioner came to his house and announced that he will kill the deceased. On the next date, the informant got information that petitioner along with his family members has committed murder of his daughter.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the nature of allegation is general and omnibus. It has further been submitted that during course of trial, two witnesses have been examined and they have turned hostile.

5. Countering this, learned APP appearing for the State has opposed the prayer of regular bail and has submitted that from perusal of the post-mortem report it is clear that deceased has received four lacerated wounds and the Doctor conducting autopsy of the deceased has opined that in our opinion the cause of death is due to hemorrhage and shock as a result of above mentioned injuries.

6. From the post-mortem report it is clear that the deceased was assaulted brutally due to which she has died. Since the petitioner is the husband of the deceased, main thrust of allegation is against him. A report was called for from the learned trial court regarding stage of trial and learned trial court has recorded that out of 12 witnesses altogether 6 witnesses have been examined and that the trial is likely to be concluded within six months.

7. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this stage, however, the petitioner may renew his prayer for bail after six months, if the trial is not concluded. Learned trial court is directed to expedite the trial.
