3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner submitted that in spite of the admission made by the respondents in the counter affidavit, they have not acted in accordance with the resolution of the Finance Department dated 21.01.2010. Learned counsel in this background further informs that the effective date has been clarified by several decisions of the Apex Court, as well as, this Court that those employees who were in service on 01.01.2006, they are entitled for the benefit as per the notification dated 21.01.2010. In these backgrounds, learned counsel submits that the petitioner seeks to file a detailed representation before the Additional Chief Secretary, Home Department, Government of Bihar.

4. The Additional Chief Secretary, Home Department, Government of Bihar is required to call for the service particulars, relating to the petitioner and see that the grievance of the petitioner is redressed in accordance with law well within a period of six weeks from the date of filing of the representation by the petitioner.

5. The writ petition stands disposed of.
