5. Countering this Learned APP for the State has vehemently opposed the bail of the petitioner and has submitted that from perusal of the post-mortem report it will transpire that the deceased has following ante-mortem injuries:-

(i) 03 stitched wound in different direction in length of longest one was 04 cm. These were situated on top portion of head.

(ii) Stitched wound on left forearm on outer aspect of length-10 cm.

(iii) Bruise of muscle of whole length of right arm.

(iv) Right wrist bones were dislocated.

The Doctor conducting autopsy of the deceased has opined that cause of death is head injury.

6. From perusal of the post-mortem report it is clear that the deceased was having three stitched wounds on head. It means that he has received three head injuries. From perusal of the FIR and post-mortem report it is clear that the deceased was brutally assaulted.

7. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and in the facts and circumstances of the case as stated above, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. As such, his prayer for bail stands rejected.
