3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have antecedent of one case and the informant alleges that accused persons including the petitioners came with dead body of Puja in an ambulance and part in front of the nursing home and created ruckus and damaged the nursing home on the pretext that Puja died during the course of delivery.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have been falsely implicated in the instant case by the informant. It is next submitted that during the course of delivery, a patient Puja died, as such, villagers had gathered and the doctors and staffs of the nursing home were not cooperating rather were demanding money, as such, an altercation had taken place and some nursing home articles were even destroyed, but petitioners were being co-villagers of Puja had also come to the nursing home and from perusal of the allegation as alleged in the FIR, it would manifest that allegation of damaging the articles of nursing home and assault is general and omnibus in nature. It is also submitted that petitioners will not abscond rather will cooperate in the investigation to prove their innocence.

5. Learned A.P.P. opposes the anticipatory bail application.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners, above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, are directed to be released on anticipatory bail on their furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs.

10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court where the case is pending/successor Court in connection with Surajgarha P. S. Case No.262 of 2025, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 482(2) of the B.N.S.S.

7. The application stands allowed.

8. However, it is made clear that in the event, if any application is filed by the Investigating Officer before the learned trial Court bringing to its notice that petitioners, despite giving assurance to this Court, are not cooperating in the investigation or are not presenting themselves as and when required, the learned trial Court shall be at liberty to cancel the bail bonds of the petitioners after recording reasons.

9. Let a copy of this order be sent to the concerned Police Station through the learned trial Court.
