3. After some argument, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he will be approaching the District Magistrate-cum-Collector, Sitamarhi afresh for the redressal of the grievance alongwith all the connecting documents.

4. Learned State counsel submits that the matter will be taken to its logical conclusion, if the petitioner approaches before the concerned Officer.

5. In that background, the writ petition stands disposed of allowing the petitioner to file a fresh petition alongwith all the supporting documents to prove his bonafide over the land in question and the Collector, Sitamarhi, after noticing the relevant parties/hearing them will be passing a reasoned order at an earliest.
