(v) for granting/issuance of any other reliefs or order or direction as deem fit and proper in the interest of justice.

3. It is unfortunate that even for the disposal of a case, one has to move before this Court.

4. The Settlement Case No. 01 of 2012-13 was preferred by the petitioner in the light of the order passed on 22.09.2011 in Case No. 44 of 2011-12.

5. The submission is that the same is still pending before the learned Deputy Collector, Land Reforms, Banmankhi.

6. Learned State counsel submits that if not disposed of it shall be taken to its logical conclusion at an earliest.

7. This Court cautions the concerned Officer to act in accordance with law and see to it that the aforesaid Settlement Case No. 01 of 2012-13 is disposed of in next sixty days failing which an adverse order may be passed against him.

8. The aforesaid order has been passed in the background of the fact that the case is still pending, if the case is disposed of, no further steps shall be taken.

9. Any development that will take place in between shall be subject to the final outcome of the order passed by the

10. The writ petition is disposed of with the aforesaid observation.
